The Leeds International Piano Competition has launched the careers of some of the greatest pianists of our time. For the 2021 edition, successful candidates from Round 1 compete in front of the 14 jury members in Leeds through individual and collaborative rounds in September 2021. On this occasion, medici.tv is launching a dedicated website in four languages (English, Russian, Korean and Chinese) at www.leedspiano.medicivt.com on July 19 2021, and will allow fellow music lovers to follow the competition from its first round to the Awards ceremony!

On this dedicated website, the competition's First Round — in which 24 pianists from 18 different countries were selected to compete in the successive rounds — will be available on replay from mid-July, followed by the live broadcast of the Second Round, Semi Finals, Finals and Awards Ceremony on 8-18 September 2021. These final rounds will feature solo work, chamber music performances and a concerto finale with the world-renowned Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra. All replays will be available until September 19th, 2024.

For the second time, medici.tv's collaboration with the Competition marks its commitment to supporting young and talented musicians and accompany them in their rise to success by putting them under the spotlight internationally! medici.tv's further fulfils this goal by organising the medici.tv Audience Award: The candidate chosen by the public thanks to an online voting tool will win a performance broadcast on medici.tv within the next three years; thereby creating a powerful bond with their audience.
